

Dear Colleagues in Education:

The Institute for Mexicans Abroad (Instituto de los Mexicanos en el Exterior) offers free Spanish language text books and children's literature to schools, school districts, community organizations and public libraries that serve children from Mexico, children of Mexican descent and other Hispanics.

The entity requesting books must agree to cover the cost of transporting the books from the Mexican border to the final destination and submit a written proposal that describes how the books will be used; the number of individuals who will use the books; the percentage of users who are of Mexican descent and the name, address, phone number and fax number of the institution making the request. Requests must be submitted by June 8 to:
