

The CNA Creed

We wake you in the morning.
We tuck you in at night.
We feed, bathe, and clothe you Just to make sure you are alright.

We keep a close eye on every move you make
Just to make sure no nasty fall you will ever take.

We tell you jokes that make you laugh

And listen to stories from your past.

Reading your favorite book or saying a short prayer, Letting you know we're always there.

Maintaining your independence
and a sense of dignity,
Is the goal of all good CNAs you see.
