

CONTEXTUAL INFORMATION

Mission:

Bradley University is committed to excellence in teaching and learning. At Bradley, students, faculty, and staff unite to create a dynamic academic community of the highest quality committed to the exploration of what is known and the discovery of what is not.

Teacher Preparation Programs:

Bradley University offers 18 baccalaureate programs leading to state teacher certification and graduate-level certification programs in Educational Administration, Special Education, and School Counseling.

Student Characteristics:

Most undergraduates (93.8%) are of traditional college age, 94% attend full-time, and 87.9% are Illinois residents. Ten point five percent of all students are minority students. The average ACT score for fall 2005 freshmen was 24. Undergraduate enrollment is 5369. Graduate enrollment is 785. Total enrollment is 6154.

Admissions Requirements:

Admission to Teacher Education Program: Candidates must have earned a minimum grade point average of 2.5 overall, 2.5 in education courses, and a 2.5 in their content major or concentration. Candidates must have earned grades of not less than a C in COM 103, ENG 101, and a mathematics course that meets university general education requirements. They must have completed a prescribed group of education courses for each major with the appropriate GPA and no Ds, passed the Illinois Certification Test of Basic Skills, demonstrated appropriate pre-professional behaviors and dispositions, been cleared on a check of criminal history, and received a satisfactory vote of the faculty.

Admission to Student Teaching: Candidates must have maintained a minimum grade point average of 2.5 overall, 2.5 in education courses, and a 2.5 in their content major or concentration. They must have been advanced to candidacy, passed the Illinois Certification Test in their content area, been cleared on a State Police fingerprint check, and have a negative result on a current TB test.

Accreditation:

Bradley University is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools; the College of Education and Health Sciences is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE); and all teacher preparation programs are approved by the Illinois State Board of Education. Individual teacher preparation programs are accredited by one of the following: National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), Association for Childhood Education International (ACEI), National Council for the Social Studies (NCSS), National Science Teachers Association (NSTA), National Council of Teachers of Mathematics (NCTM), Council for Exceptional Children (CEC), National Association of Schools of Music (NASM), and National Association of Schools of Art and Design (NASAD).

Teacher Education Vision:

The mission of Teacher Education at Bradley University is to prepare teachers who will be effective leaders, advocates, and life-long learners. We believe that teaching and learning are dynamic, interactive, life-long processes based on empowering interactions among learners.

Best Practices:

- Practicum experiences in the schools begin the freshman year and continue each year of the program, increasing in responsibility.
- Each candidate will have clinical experiences in the full range of his or her certification and in a diverse setting.
- The University has Professional Development School partners at each level from early childhood through high school.

Notable Features and Accomplishments:

- Placement of graduates was 99% for this year.
- Whittier Primary School, our newest PDS partner, was recognized as a Blue Ribbon School nationally and received federal recognition. The principal, an alumna of Bradley, also received a national award from the U.S. Department of Education.
- In 4 of the last 8 years a student teacher has been named one of ten "PDK Outstanding Student Teachers" in the nation.
- Two teacher education professors have received the NBPTS (National Board for Professional Teaching Standards) certificate.
- The College and the local schools have a professional development schools partnership that provides unique opportunities for students and faculty.
- Opportunities exist for students to student teach in Department of Defense Schools in England.
- The College is a thirteen-year recipient of a William T. Kemper Grant which supports a partnership between Bradley University's College of Education and Health Sciences and four selected public school sites to foster collaborative leadership and support teaching excellence.
- Science Education at Bradley has received awards from Bradley for Excellence, National Science Foundation, the Annie E. Casey Foundation, and other external grants for STEM programming.
- Bradley University is one of three institutions of higher education in Illinois to be selected to participate in a Library of Congress national project, focusing on developing interactive learning and teaching resources for P-16 classrooms.
