Task Analysis

Objective:

Skills and Knowledge Required for Task Completion:

1. ________________________________
2. ________________________________
3. ________________________________
4. ________________________________
5. ________________________________

Is there background knowledge the entire group is lacking?

Is there background knowledge individual students are lacking?

Are there skills the entire group is lacking?

Are there skills individual students are lacking?

What steps will be taken to anticipate instructional difficulties for students?

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Student Name</th>
<th>Potential Problem</th>
<th>Action Steps</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Handout 5

Is a gradual release of responsibility model (I do, we do, you do) present in the lesson? What parts are missing?

___________________________________________________ _____________________
___________________________________________________ _____________________
___________________________________________________ _____________________

What techniques will you utilize to build the missing parts in?

1. Demonstration ____
2. Additional examples ____
3. Connecting previous learning to new learning ____
4. Activating background knowledge____
5. Prompting ____
6. Other____

Describe the technique and where in the lesson it will be incorporated.

___________________________________________________ _____________________
___________________________________________________ _____________________
___________________________________________________ _____________________
___________________________________________________ _____________________