Regional Workshop for Districts with High Priority Schools

Purposes

- Explain state and federal (No Child Left Behind) requirements;
- Provide information about the services and resources to assist in meeting these requirements;
- Establish a communication process to keep informed about requirements and support; and

Participants: District leadership teams consisting of board of education members, superintendent, principals, union and parent representatives

Agenda

- Welcome and Introductions
- Overview of No Child Left Behind
- Responsibilities of Districts/AEWL Schools
- Review of System of Support: Goals, Strategies and Process
- System of Support Teams: Resources and Services from State Board of Education, Regional Offices of Education (ROE), Intermediate Service Centers (ISC), other Partners
- Immediate Course of Action to Implement the Requirements
- Response to Issues, Concerns, Questions
- Closure

NOTES: