Managing Access to the K-12 Assessment Reporting Portal

Granting Access and Data Privacy

- Provisioning access to College Board's K-12 Assessment Reporting portal should only be provided to educators employed at the school who are allowed to see student-level data.
- Score reports from the SAT School Day administration should only be accessed by school employees.
- Access to your school's K-12 Assessment Reporting portal should not be provisioned to any external users.

Accessing Scores

- Educators and students can access their scores through the online score reporting portal.
- For educators, the online score portal is referred to as the “K-12 Assessment Reporting Portal.”
- Scores from the April 13 SAT School Day administration were available starting May 6.

Next Steps for Accessing Scores:

- Designate a school-level Data Access Manager.
- Provision ‘Detail’ access to administrators and to the test coordinator.
- Access score reports within the K-12 Assessment Reporting Portal.

A screenshot of the College Board login page. On the left, there is a circular image showing a group of four students walking away from the camera on a path. The background of the page is blue. The text 'College Starts Here' is prominently displayed in white. Below it, a smaller line of text says 'Sign in to personalize your visit.' There are two input fields: 'Username' and 'Password'. To the right of the 'Password' field is a yellow 'Sign In' button. At the bottom, there are two links: 'Don't have an account? Sign up' and 'Forgot username or password?'

Accessing Scores for the First Time

Data Access Manager:

- Access managers must assign each role that an educator needs at their school, including themselves.
- Specific roles and functionality of each role are outlined below.

File Downloads:

- This role allows the user to download data files from the Download Center.
- This role does not grant access to the Reports Center.

Detailed Reports:

- This role provides complete access to the Reports Center, including aggregate data and data for individual students as well as personally identifiable information.
- This role should be given only to teachers, counselors, and other staff authorized to see student-level results.
- This role does not grant access to the Download Center.

Summary Reports:

- This role provides access to aggregate score reporting in the Reports Center and is limited to summary data only, with no access to individual student information.
- This role should be given to colleagues who don't need student-level information.
- This role does not grant access to the Download Center.

Note:

- Each role is independent, and some colleagues need more than one role.
- For complete access to the reporting portal, Data Access Managers need to assign users to the File Downloads role and the Detailed Reports role.
- A staff member does not need BOTH Summary Reports & Detailed Reports roles.

This component of the SAT focuses on the assessment of students' ability to understand, evaluate, and make use of textual evidence (facts, details, statistics, and the like). This component is based on selected questions from the Reading Test and Writing and Language Test. The Command of Evidence score is the number of questions you answered correctly converted to a scale score. It is a separately scaled score and is not used to compute other scores.

The Curriculum Review Worksheets are designed to help teachers

- understand many of the skills and knowledge that are assessed on the PSAT™ 8/9, PSAT™ 10, and SAT®;
- review student performance;
- identify skills and knowledge that need additional instruction and support; and
- develop a plan for implementation.

The Curriculum Review Worksheets contain sets of tables addressing most of the skills and knowledge assessed on the PSAT™ 8/9, PSAT™ 10, and SAT® (Reading, Writing and Language, and Math Tests).

Each table includes a description of a skill or knowledge and provides a structure to guide educators to evaluate the placement of that skill or knowledge within the curriculum.
