State-Allowed Accommodations for Illinois

On an exception basis only, for students with disabilities whose requests for College Board-approved accommodations were not approved for college- or scholarship-reportable scores, you may submit a state-allowed accommodation request, allowing them to test with their accommodations. For students with disabilities, all requests should be submitted as a College Board-approved accommodation first so students have the opportunity to receive college reportable scores.

Students who test with state-allowed accommodations for any section of the test, including the Essay, will NOT receive scores that are college- or scholarship-reportable for any section.
