

ILLINOIS STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

PUBLIC NONPUBLIC CONFERENCE

Wednesday, April 5, 2017

Time, Location	Meeting Agenda	Presenter, Title
8:30 - 9:00	Registration and Coffee
9:00 – 9:10	Welcome and Introductions	Melina Wright, ISBE
9:10 – 9:45	Getting to know one another	Melina Wright, ISBE
9:45 – 11:15 Illini Ballroom	Keynote Address	Maureen Dowling, Director Office of Non-Public Education and Military Affairs Team, United States Department of Education
11:45-12:10	BREAKOUT SESSION 1
	Consultation Logistics:	Moderator: Zach Wichmann, CCI Pam Butts, CPS/Private Programs Manager; Arlene Friedman, CPS Affiliate Representative for Jewish Schools; Faith Caron, CPS Affiliate Rep. for Independent Schools; Larry McVey, Springfield School District 186, Title I Coordinator; Jane Blanton and Suzanne Dillow, ISBE
Fighting Illini	This panel will discuss how to conduct effective consultation with public districts and private schools. For example, What documents and data to bring to a consultation meeting? What topics are required for consultation list? What do “timely” and “meaningful” conversations look like?
	Title I Program:	Nancy Oesterreich and Mitch Parrish, ISBE
Boilermaker/ Wildcat/ Nittany Lion	This session will discuss program allocation and program delivery. It will cover the important requirements of determining differences between schoolwide versus targeted assistance models.

Time, Location	Meeting Agenda	Presenter, Title
Little Chief	Title IIA/Title IV Program: This session will cover the professional development options under Title II. It will also cover the parameters of the Title IV. In addition, it will cover the general relationship between secular and non-secular issues.	Cheryl Ivy and Agurann Bates, ISBE
Illini Ballroom	Technical Assistance: Do you have questions or concerns specific to your school district? ISBE staff will be waiting to discuss your individual concerns in a relaxed but more private setting.	Heather Ladage, Beth Grant, and Deb Foust, ISBE
12:20 – 1:35 Illini Ballroom	BOXED LUNCH AND TOP TEN QUESTIONS	Jason Helfer, Deputy Superintendent for Teaching and Learning, ISBE
1:45 – 2:30	BREAKOUT SESSION 2
Fighting Illini	Consultation Logistics: This panel will discuss how to conduct effective consultation with public districts and private schools. For example, What documents and data to bring to a consultation meeting? What topics are required for consultation list? What do “timely” and “meaningful” conversations look like?	Moderator: Zach Wichmann, CCI Pam Butts, CPS/Private Programs Manager; Arlene Friedman, CPS Affiliate Representative for Jewish Schools; Faith Caron, CPS Affiliate Rep. for Independent Schools; Larry McVey, Springfield School District 186, Title I Coordinator; Jane Blanton and Suzanne Dillow, ISBE
Boilermaker/ Wildcat/ Nittany Lion	Title I Program: This session will discuss program allocation and program delivery. It will cover the important requirements of determining differences between schoolwide versus targeted assistance models.	Nancy Oesterreich and Mitch Parrish, ISBE
Little Chief	Title IIA/Title IV Program: This session will cover the professional development options under Title II. It will also cover the parameters of the Title IV. In addition, it will cover the general relationship between secular and non-secular issues.	Cheryl Ivy and Agurann Bates, ISBE

Time, Location	Meeting Agenda	Presenter, Title
Illini Ballroom	Technical Assistance: Do you have questions or concerns specific to your school district? ISBE staff will be waiting to discuss your individual concerns in a relaxed but more private setting.	Heather Ladage, Beth Grant, and Deb Foust, ISBE
2:40 – 3:25	BREAKOUT SESSION 3
Fighting Illini	Consultation Logistics: This panel will discuss how to conduct effective consultation with public districts and private schools. For example, What documents and data to bring to a consultation meeting? What topics are required for consultation list? What do “timely” and “meaningful” conversations look like?	Moderator: Zach Wichmann, CCI Pam Butts, CPS/Private Programs Manager; Arlene Friedman, CPS Affiliate Representative for Jewish Schools; Faith Caron, CPS Affiliate Rep. for Independent Schools; Larry McVey, Springfield School District 186, Title I Coordinator; Jane Blanton and Suzanne Dillow, ISBE
Boilermaker/ Wildcat/ Nittany Lion	Title I Program: This session will discuss program allocation and program delivery. It will cover the important requirements of determining differences between schoolwide versus targeted assistance models.	Nancy Oesterreich and Mitch Parrish, ISBE
Little Chief	Title IIA/Title IV Program: This session will cover the professional development options under Title II. It will also cover the parameters of the Title IV. In addition, it will cover the general relationship between secular and non-secular issues.	Cheryl Ivy and Agurann Bates, ISBE
Illini Ballroom	Technical Assistance: Do you have questions or concerns specific to your school district? ISBE staff will be waiting to discuss your individual concerns in a relaxed but more private setting.	Heather Ladage, Beth Grant, and Deb Foust, ISBE

Don't forget to submit your evaluations!
[\[https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/7HWS9C6\]](https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/7HWS9C6)
Thank you for coming! Have a safe trip home.