Insights on Diversifying the Teacher Workforce

Data Tool for Practitioners

The US Educator Workforce is Predominantly White

Figure 2. Percentage distribution of teachers in public elementary and secondary schools, by race/ethnicity: Selected years, 1987–88 through 2011–12

Data for years 1987–88 through 1999–2000 are only roughly comparable to data for later years, because the new category of two or more races was introduced in 2003–04.*

Benefits of Diverse Workforce

Diverse Educators:

- hold higher expectations for minority students
- serve as role models for students
- reduce disparities in both special education & gifted placements, and suspension and expulsion rates
- improve academic outcomes for students
