

College Board Webinar: Helping Students Understand Score Reports and Use BigFuture May 15 – 19, 2023

The College Board is excited to provide a webinar that will focus on resources available to educators who support students in accessing and understanding SAT with Essay, PSAT10, and PSAT8/9 scores. The webinar will also provide an overview of how students can access and utilize College Board's BigFuture college and career planning tools.

During the webinar, College Board will address the steps needed to help students access its online Score Reporting Portal. Additionally, College Board will share best practices for how students and families can effectively utilize the data and reports to understand and interpret scores. The webinar will also provide tips to share with students who participated in the SAT with Essay administration with a focus on viewing score sends and leveraging fee waiver benefits, if applicable. Finally, College Board will share suggestions for how to help students use BigFuture to plan for college, pay for college, and explore careers.

Intended audience: Administrators, counselors, teachers, and other educators

We invite you to participate in this webinar on any of the following dates and times:
