Key w = 1-2 days

Blue Arrow = 1-2 days Green Arrow = 5-7 days

Student Enters Foster Care Initial Placement

Placement located WITHIN the district of origin. The foster care placement located in is OUTSIDE the district of origin. District student attending or entitled to District where placement is located OR attend at the time of placement in foster is the district of residence. care is the school of origin. Best interest BID is to continue determination (BID) is student in the school of to continue student in origin (school last the school of origin attended). (school last attended). Student will continue to attend the school of origin. The district of attendance in which the school of origin is located will continue to transport student. YES YES In this instance, the district of attendance is also the district of origin. NO NO Student will be immediately Student will be immediately enrolled in the new school in the enrolled in the district of district of origin. The district will residence, now known as the transport student. In this instance, district of attendance. This new the district of attendance is also district of attendance will the district of origin. transport the student. Immediately obtain records Immediately obtain records from school of origin.

from school of origin.

Student in Foster Care Placement Change

District where new foster care placement is located is now the district of residence.

BID is to continue student in the school of origin (school last attended).

Student will continue to attend school at the school of origin. The district of attendance in which the school of origin is located will continue to transport the student.

YES

Student will be immediately enrolled in the district of residence, now known as the district of attendance. This new district of attendance will transport student.

NO

Immediately obtain records from school of origin.

Adapted from New York Department of Ed.