Instructional Mandates Task Force

Public Act 96-1374 (formerly HB 4209) became effective on July 29, 2010. It calls for the appointment of an Instructional Mandates Task Force. The Task Force shall explore and examine all instructional mandates governing the public schools of this State that currently exist and shall make recommendations concerning, but not limited to, the propriety of all existing mandates, the imposition of future mandates, and waivers of instructional mandates. The Task Force shall ensure that its recommendations include specifics as to the necessary funding to carry out identified responsibilities.

For the purposes of this Section, "instructional mandate" means any State law that requires a school district to devote any amount of time to the instruction of or engagement by students in any subject or course.

The Task Force shall submit a final report of its findings and recommendations to the Governor and the General Assembly on or before July 1, 2011. The Task Force may submit other reports as it deems appropriate. (h) The Task Force is abolished on July 2, 2011, and this Section is repealed on July 1, 2012. Beginning on the effective date of this amendatory Act of the 96th General Assembly and until one year after the Task Force submits a final report to the Governor and General Assembly, there shall be a moratorium on the passage of instructional mandates for public schools.

The Task Force shall explore and examine all instructional mandates governing the public schools of this State that currently exist and shall make recommendations concerning, but not limited to:

- the propriety of all existing mandates,
- the imposition of future mandates, and
- waivers of instructional mandates.

The Task Force shall ensure that its recommendations include specifics as to the necessary funding to carry out identified responsibilities.

The Task Force shall submit a final report of to the Governor and the General Assembly on or before July 1, 2011.
