

Kindergarten Individual Development Survey
Every Illinois Child Ready for Kindergarten

OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

Following are open-ended questions/statements that can be written on sentence strips and placed up high on the wall of the room. Or, the list can be placed on a clipboard in an interest area as a quick reference for adults who are interacting with children.

Can you think of another way?

What might you try instead?

Where could we do that?

Tell me about your...

What can you tell me about...?

What does it remind you of?

What does this make you think of?

What are some different things you could try?

What do you think would happen if...?

How did you think of that?

What can you tell me about the things you have?

How are you going to do that?

Show me what you could do with...

Is there anything else you could do/use?

OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

Can you think of another way?

What might you try instead?

Where could we do that?

Tell me about your...

What can you tell me about...?

What does it remind you of?

What does this make you think of?

What are some different things you could try?

OPEN-ENDED QUESTIONS

What do you think would happen if...?

How did you think of that?

What can you tell me about the things you have?

How are you going to do that?

Show me what you could do with...

Is there anything else you could do/use?